

CITIZEN OBSERVER (RIDE-ALONG) PROGRAM INFORMATION

The Citizen Observer (Ride-Along) program follows established guidelines for the protection of the observer. Deviation from these guidelines without the expressed consent of the host officer is cause for immediate termination of the ride-along.

RULES OF CONDUCT

1. All information and observations acquired by the citizen observer during the ride-along shall be considered strictly confidential unless otherwise stated by the host officer.
2. The citizen observer must realize that any action he/she witnesses during the ride-along may require a court appearance at a later date.
3. Under no circumstances shall a citizen observer:
 - a. Be permitted to carry any weapon unless authorized and approved by the shift supervisor.
 - b. Operate the patrol vehicle or any other equipment.
 - c. Act as an agent for the Department or otherwise perform any police-related duty.
 - d. Approach any vehicle on a traffic stop or approach any residence, building, or other situation where the potential for violence exists or a crime is in progress.
 - e. Enter any crime scene of a serious nature (such as a homicide) and/or touch, possess, tamper with, or otherwise have contact with any evidence.

SAFETY CONSIDERATIONS

The physical safety of the citizen observer is of the utmost importance; therefore, host officers shall weigh situations for potential hazards when responding to calls.

In cases of possible extreme danger (i.e. person with gun), the citizen observer may be let out of the patrol vehicle at a safe distance from the area unless qualified to assist. In situations with a potential for violence (fights, family disturbances, etc.), the citizen observer shall remain in the patrol vehicle unless qualified to assist.

RELEASE AND HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT

In consideration of being permitted to ride in a vehicle owned and operated by the City, for the expressed purpose of observing operations and facilities of the Police Department; the undersigned agrees to release and hold harmless the City, its agents, employees, and elected officials from any and all liability to me for personal injury or death or any property damage, whether proximate or remote, sustained during or as a result of my ride as an observer.

I understand that I will be a guest passenger in the vehicle in which I ride and have not offered any payment to the Police Department or its employees for the opportunity to ride. I further understand that I may be summoned as witness in any proceeding as a result of my observations.

This observation is for my educational benefit. At all time, I agree to obey all orders, instructions and commands of the officer(s) of the Police Department. I fully realize and appreciate the basic nature of law enforcement and the possibility that situations may arise which might result in my exposure to danger of physical harm or injury, including traffic accidents, and I am willing to accept these risks. I further agree to keep confidential anything, which I may observe or hear. I understand that my observation ride may be terminated at any time without notice.

I authorize the Police Department to conduct a complete records check of me prior to riding and understand that any information of an adverse or criminal nature may disqualify me.

I freely and voluntarily sign this Release and Hold Harmless Agreement in sole reliance of my own independent judgment.
